

Table 1. AICP Code Principles to Which We Aspire, Quick Reference Guide

1. Responsibility to the Public

- 1.a. Consider rights of others
- 1.b. Concern for long-range consequences
- 1.c. Attend to interrelatedness of decisions
- 1.d. Provide information to all affected
- 1.e. Participation - meaningful impact
- 1.f. Social justice - plan for disadvantaged
- 1.g. Excellent design; preserve heritage
- 1.h. Deal fairly and evenhandedly

2. Responsibility to Clients/Employers

- 2.a. Exercise independent judgment
- 2.b. Accept client decision unless illegal...
- 2.c. Avoid appearance of conflict of interest

3. Responsibility to Profession/Colleagues

- 3.a. Enhance professional integrity
- 3.b. Educate public on planning issues
- 3.c. Treat other professionals fairly
- 3.d. Share experience and research
- 3.e. Apply customary solutions with caution
- 3.f. Contribute to professional development
- 3.g. Increase opportunity for underrepresented groups
- 3.h. Enhance education and training
- 3.i. Examine/analyze ethical issues
- 3.j. Contribute to those lacking resources

Table 2. AICP Code Rules of Conduct, Quick Reference Guide

1. Inaccurate information – untruthfulness
2. Illegal or unethical conduct
3. Change of public position on an issue
4. Outside employment (“moonlighting”)
5. Acceptance of gifts or advantage
6. Personal or financial gain
7. Breach of confidentiality
8. Private communication (public)
9. Private communication (other)
10. Misrepresentation of others’ qualifications
11. Solicitation via false claims; duress
12. Misstatement of one’s qualifications
13. Influence via improper means
14. Official power used for advantage
15. Work beyond professional competence
16. Promptness of work required
17. Misuse of others’ work
18. Pressure; unsubstantiated findings
19. Concealment of interest/failure to disclose
20. Unlawful Discrimination
21. Cooperation in AICP investigation
22. Retaliation for misconduct charge
23. Threat to file charge (advantage)
24. No frivolous ethics charge
25. Deliberate, wrongful act
26. Notification of “serious crime”