WHAT TO EXPECT

Guideposts to Decision Making: Ethics & Land Use Law workshop is sure to benefit you in many ways.

The Ethics Session will provide a general overview of Pennsylvania's Public Official and Employee Ethics Act, including the conflict of interest prohibitions and the Statement of Financial Interests filing requirements. Emphasis will be placed on a "nuts and bolts" application of the law with frequent reference to actual cases. The APA Code of Ethics Review will illustrate how the code impacts local decision-making.

The Law Session will present recent planning case law decisions and analysis with an emphasis on Commonwealth judicial decisions related to land use and the environment.

To make the workshop engaging, if you have ethics scenarios you would like discussed, please email them to Central Section Chairperson, Rachelle Abbott at raabbott@stepcorp.org and they will be incorporated into the discussion!
