

Great Places in Pennsylvania 2018 Guidelines

- What makes a Great Place?
 - Pennsylvania's truly Great Places are defined by many criteria, including, but not limited to, architectural features, accessibility, connectivity, functionality, community engagement, economic opportunity, and forward thinking planning.
 - They are centerpieces of communities: places where people want to be, not only to visit, but also to live and work every day.
 - They are enjoyable, safe, desirable, and well-maintained.
 - They are unique, innovative, and vibrant.

- Who can nominate a Great Place?
 - Individuals, organizations, or municipalities can nominate a Great Place in their own community or another community. Nominators must be 18 years of age or older.
 - Members of the PA Chapter of APA Board of Directors will not be permitted to submit nominations during their term of office.

- Can more than one nomination be submitted by a municipality, group, or individual?
 - Yes, there is no limit to the number of nominations that a municipality, organization or individual may submit.

- Will APA-PA accept a joint, regional nomination?
 - Yes, the program will accept nominations by consortiums of organizations or individuals, including nominations submitted jointly by two or more municipalities and/or counties.

- When can applications be submitted?
 - Nominations for the current year must be submitted by the deadline published on the APA-PA website at <http://planningpa.org/about/great-places-in-pennsylvania-2>.

- How are nominations submitted?
 - Nominations must be submitted on line at <http://planningpa.org/about/great-places-in-pennsylvania-2/great-places-submission-form/>.

- What is the policy on the use of materials submitted in support of a nomination?
 - Nominators shall permit the PA Chapter of APA to use all materials submitted in support of a nomination for purposes related to the Great Places in Pennsylvania program, including use on promotional materials.
