

ANNUAL SPRING TRAINING FORUM

JUNE 4-5 2015

The Annual Spring Training Symposium will be held June 4-5, 2015 at the Towamencin Holiday Inn, 1750 Sumneytown Pike, Kulpsville, PA 19443.

There will be three independent training classes offered this year.

June 4th

LEGAL ASPECTS OF CODE ENFORCEMENT (6 CEUS)

This seminar will help to ensure that you are enforcing the UCC and related codes in accordance with all applicable PA Codes. Topics will include but are not limited to: enforcement notice wording and delivery requirements, right-of-entry standards, municipal warrants, unsafe structures and situations, and any unique enforcement issues you would like to bring up.

This seminar will be presented by Siana, Bellowar, and McAndrew LLP. A Chester County based law firm that serves as solicitor for multiple municipalities. The Firm's reputation for excellence is well established in the areas of business law, municipal law, civil litigation, employment law, education law, and real estate and land development.

June 5th

DEALING WITH EXISTING BUILDINGS (6 CEUS)

This seminar from PCCA covers common inspection issues encountered in existing buildings.

JUNE 4TH & 5TH

ZONING AND PLANNING (12 CEUS)

This seminar, presented by The Pennsylvania Municipal Planning Education Institute, will cover the zoning and planning processes under the PA Municipalities Planning Code.
